THE MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF LIQUOR AND CIGARS.

For some time past we have endeavored to obtain correct figures as to the amount and value of malt liquors and the number of cigars, manufactured in the Second Division of this Collection District, during the year 1877. Through the assistance of Mr. A. H. Main, of Madison, deputy collector of internal revenue, we are enabled to lay before our readers some interesting and important statistics on the subject. on the stump for temperance find Will and thought for a rousing lecture, in the information here made public. Those who manufacture will be interested in knowing what their neighbors are doing in the same line of business; and those who drink and smoke will find consolation in the fact that the supply seems inexhaustible. This division embraces the counties of Rock, Dane, Sauk, and Green. It must be remembered that the figures designate barrels in giving the quantity of fermented liquors made, and that a barrel holds thirty-two gallons. FERMENTED LIQUORS-ROCK COUNTY.

The clear industry in the district makes a very fair showing when we refer to the number of cigars manufactured. It will be noticed that Madison and Beloit have the largest factories in the district, and that Rock county manufactures more cigars than the other three counties in the division. The statistics are as follows: BOCK COUNTY.

Now for a little investigation. The United States tax on ale and beer is $1.00 per barrel, less 71/2 per cent., making about $21,000 stamp tax paid on liquor manufactured in this division. The amount paid by the brewers for special tax or license, is about $1,500, making the total revenue to the Government for fermented liquors, of $22,500. The tax on cigars is $6 per 1000, which in the total reaches $21,750, and if we add the tax paid on cigars by stamp, and the license for manufacturing-$400. we have a total revenue from cigars amounting to $22,150.

But while the government receives from these agricultural countries about $45,000 annually from the manufacture of beer and cigars, what do the consumers pay for these so-called luxuries? It is safe to say that quite as much beer is imported into these four counties as is exported, so that the consumption is not less than 22,500 barrels a year, and which brings at retail, about $16 per barrel. Here we have an expenditure for ale and beer of at least $350,000 a year in four counters. The same is equally true of cigars. More of them are brought into the district than are taken out, and calling the average price of cigars only seven cents, which is a low average. we have the enormous sum of $253,827.00! These two luxurles-cigars and beer-cost the comsummer, directly, over $600,000 in the year 1877. If these four counties expend this vast amount, now enormous must be the comsumption in the United State. Does this indicate "hard times" and "financial depression?" We submit the question to the reader.

SHALL OUR MANUFACTORIES BE DESTROYED?

There are two bills before the Legislature to compel the power owners of Rock river to lower the dam two feet at Indian. Ford, or in other words to demolish the dam, and thus destroy the water power and cripple the manufacturing interests on the river. The charge is made that some who favor this outrageous scheme are Patrons of Husbandry, and that they are at work to tear down one important interest with the faint hope that a benefit may accrue to them. We cannot believe that the Patrons of Husbandry can cupation by the prison authorities, and it be guilty of such a diabolical and suicidical piece of work. The Democrats maintained that these claims were just and should be paid, and they had some Republican help. The bill went over for two weeks. The effect upon the Republicans has been marked. They think it will unite the Republican vote against the payment of any Southern claims, for the reason that after the assertions of the Democrats, and contradicting proof of the Confederate archives, little confidence can be placed in Southern statements. The Southern Democrats, too, are greatly alarmed, as they fear, under the circumstances, an alliance Northern Democrats with them against all claims altogether. Said a Republican: "It was the most notable day for the Republicans of this Congress. The story of the Confederate archives, with the contrary assertions of the Confederate leaders, cannot fail to leave its impression upon the public mind. The contents of Rebel archives were a complete surprise to the Southern Democrats, and the facts which they have disclosed have again proved their value and justified their pur-millions of dollars. Pickett, who sold them, is still here, and is the person to whom Hewitt was indebted as having brought information from Maddox that Madison Wells would count the vote of Louisiana for Tilden for a price. Conger, of Michigan, asserted that the Confederate Government directed Postmasters to retain the postal property of the United States for the benefit of the Confederate States, and read extracts from the proclamation of Reagan, Postmaster General of the Confederacy, to support him. Reagan was on the floor of the House as a Representative from Texas, and replied to Conger, insisting that the proclamation directed the Postmasters to settle with the United States for postage stamps and revenues-a command which certainly, it ever made, was not obeyed. It was, in fact, notorious that the Confederate States retained all the Government property. Willets, of Michigan, made the strong point of the day, and produced the archves. He proved that the railroad companies and individuals had been paid by the Confederate States for the very service redemption of fractional currency befor which they now ask payment from the gan. The Democrats' generally claimed that surprise to them, and some of them were fair enough to state that, under the circumstances, the Rebel claims should not be paid. Blount, of Georgia had the manliness to say it would be contrary to good morals to pay them. Tucker of Virginia, even one of the most pronounced of Southern men, was so impressed by these citations that he insisted that no vote should be taken until the subject could be re-examined. He wanted, he said, to vindicate the honor of the Confederacy. The Democrats, with their experts and partisan malice and zeal, have discovered no Republican rascality. Considerable excitement was created at the time of Liverman's appearance and there were many who suspected foul play. It is now the general impression that his death was the result of an accident. Mr. Liverman was one of La Crosse's prominent citizens, and a man well known among Mississippi River steamboat men.

No trade dollars have been 'made this year. Seven millions were coined in 1877. Their coinage was suspended in December. They were only coined to a limited extent for circulation.

No silver five cent pieces have been made for five years. In fact they have been abolished as well as the silver three cent pieces. The nickel threes are still issued, although but few are used.

From five to ten thousand dollars of eagles, one-fourth eagles, one-half eagles and three dollar pieces are made every year in order to keep up the history of the coin. About $2,000 of ones are made annually for the same purpose.

They went chiefly West and East. in 1877 only about 386,000 in these small coins were shipped.

The authorities at the mint can feel the pulse of business by the amount of coins sent in for redemption. If business is falling off the redemption is larger. When it is steady the redemption moves along at a rate of about $500 a day.

The greatest demand for silver coins is for the half dollar. The quarter dollar is the second favorite, and the dime is the third and last in the list. The demand for half dollars is twice as great as are required than dimes.

When business is brisk in the city about seven or eight hundred dollars a day in change is required for nickel and bronze. The railroad companies are demanding more than usual on account of the six-cent fares. The demand, however, has fallen off somewhat within the past few days. Although more trade dollars were coined

This was not from desperation or foolhardy recklessness, but of delibersume from an unwillingness to kill his ador foolnardy recklessness, but of deliber-ate purpose. * * * Observing that the man, who was finely mounted, was so near as to be considerably above him, he had little apprehension of being hit, and believed that by taking advantage of the Trunks and Traveling Bags is excitement of the shot, he might easily tip, him from the saddle and get possession of his horse. The feasibility of this design was not tested, however, for at this moment Mrs. Davis seeing only his danger, and animated by a characteristic and heroic determination to share it, ran forward and threw her arms around his neck, with some impassioned exclamation, which probably none of the parties present would be able to repeat correctly. The only hope of escape had depended upon bringing the matter to an immediate issue, and seeing that this was now lost, the President simply said, "God's will be done," as he quietly turned back and seated himself upon a fallen tree, near which a camp fire was burning.

Handling large quantities of these goods, at a trifling expense ---in connection with our Clothing---we are enabled to sell at much lower prices than exclusive Hat Stores, hence their ill-success in Janesville.

Our Spring Stock, which is now ready for inspection, comprises all shapes and qualities in SOFT HATS, from the very cheapest to the best of Stetson's Goods. We have 8 new styles of STIFF HATS, including the Spring Shape in SILK, which we are prepared to turnish to measure.

We are the exclusive agents of the "WILSON" SHIRT, which for style, quality and and fit has no competitor, being worn by three-fourths of the fine trade in the West, who will have no other. Full lines of these goods Monday & Tuesday, Mar. 11 & 12 kept in stock and furnished to measure at a slight additional cost. We will sell 3 nicely laundried Shirts for $2.50, finished and all ready to wear. 50 Different patterns in FANCY COLOR-ED SHIRTS.

Profitable Pork Raising From the Prairie Farmer.

My experience the last tew months convinces me more than eyer that we must raise pork as cheap as possible if we are to better cooked, and, in cold weather, fed warm. Feed no more each time than they will eat up clean. I am well pleased with my experience with the Red Brazilian Artichoke as a cheap food for swine, and shall this year increase my fields to twenty acres. Last year was a poor year for them, and yet mine yielded 300 bushels per acre. I am well satisfied that they sometimes yield 800 bushels per acre. The hogs seemed to like them as well as corn, and, where they have plenty of them, will inot only grow, but fatten; in fact, will leave their corn to cat them. I think them the cheapest hog food we can raise. Besides, the tops, of which they produce a large amount, can be used as fodder. Cattle, mules and horses are very fond of it. Last season I raised 500 bushels of Mangel wurzel beets, which I am now feeding to my broad sows. They eat them eagerly, and I have no tears of their eating their pigs when they come. I tried to secure a nice lot of clover, (second growth) but the "best laid plans of men and mice gang a'ft aglee." Twice I cut it and cured it carefully, but lost it with the storms before I could stack it. I think if I had such a stack of clover now I could make good use of it, cut short, dampened and mixed with ground feed. To fatten with or finish, I admit cornjis king, but my experiences convince me it is not the best food for young growing hogs. They need coarser or more bulky food, and some exercise to develop forms, with plenty of muscle and develop forms, with plenty of muscle and healthy digestive organs. When they have reached this stage, they are ready to receive finishing touches that the corn and lessure giv, and, if placed on a cheap mar-ket, will still do the breeder some good. E. T. B.

Short-Horn Grades for Beef.

In raising stock it has been repeatedly shown that it pays to raise only the most

No farmer can afford to be constantly making changes with the expectation that one kind of stock will pay better than another. The fact is, that the raising of either cattle, hogs, sheep or horses will pay it thought and energy are properly directed in striving to increase the quality of the stock. The markets are constantly fluctuating, but the average price for all kinds of live stock is sufficiently remunerative to make stock-raising pay better in the long run than almost any other investment. The aim of all stock raisers should be to make a business of the business, grow into it, and remain in it. If he changes to any other business he loses much of the valuable experience that he has already

There is such a thing as being "Penny wise and pound foolish." Lack of success comes from thoughtlessness more than le that will only bring, when sold, about alf as much per hundred as choice cattle. It is much better and more profitable to keep eight or ten head of the right kind of cattle each year, than twenty or thirty

They are covered with leaves till the cold becomes severe, when an additional covering of manure is applied, just thick enough to keep out the frost. As the manure and leaves are easily removed at any time, the roots are easily accessible when wanted during the winter. family. Everything was shaped toward the removal. When the time came the land was unsold and some business re-mained unsettled. It was agreed that the mother and remainder of the family, except the father, should commence the move, which in those days consumed months in making. The father remained to settle up the affairs and sell the farm, intending to start as soon as he could wind up. The gentleman set himself to work, found it an up-hill but business to adjust his affairs, and could find no suitable purchaser for his land. Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the polsonous matter dropping down from my head hadso irritated and inflamed my lungsthat I coughed incessantly.—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of Sanford's Radical Currency for Catarrin. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargiel soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of Sanford's Radical Curre For Catarrin.

I have seen a

Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen, -- Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your Collins' Voltaic Plasters, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully. Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN. Obliand, Me., April 21, 1876. FARM NOTES.

New York has 241,836 farms containing 25,639,266 acres, about two-thirds of which is reported as improved land.

Up to February 28, the fruit prospects all over the Northwest were remarkably flattering and encouraging. But there is plenty of time yet to blast all our hopes. Gen. W. S. Rosecrans, Gen. Gilmore Judge Fullerton, and others have organized a company with $1,000,000 capital, to settle lands in the southwest with northern people. A large tract of timber land in Missouri has already been secured.

The total imports of barley from the province of Ontario into the United States in 1877 were 6,825,082 bushels as against 7,521,382 bushels in 1876. The imports at Oswego from Canada in 1877 were 1,812,-154 bushels an increase over the previous

A Michigan farmer recently sold a large walnut tree for which he received $876. This is now the fashionable wood, though it does grow in this country, and all large logs are cut up into veneers not more than an eighth of an inch thick.

In 1846, dressed hogs sold in Iowa at $1.75 per 100 pounds. At that low price packers lost heavily, being unable to dispose of the product, which was actually given to steamboats to burn for fuel. Nothing could be sold except the hams and the

Until within a few years, it has been thought necessary for growing potatoes profitably to hoe them two or three times. The harrow has superseded the hoe in this work-by leaving the surface of the ground rough when planting is finished, and two or more harrowings before the growth of vines interferes with the operation. Use of cultivator freely till vines are eight inches high, then mulch with long manure; best results have been attained.—

The tences of the United States are reported to be worth $800,000,000, or $20 per head for each inhabitant. The expenses secessary to keep them good, is at least $100,000,000. Major Brisbane, of the United States army, estimates the annual destruction of timber in the United States at 5,500,000 acres annually, and that onehalf of this immense area is required for fencing alone.

According to data presented at a recent meeting of the Cranberry Growers' Association, held at Trenton, N. J., last year's The gross yield is estimated at 400,000 bushels-an increase of 202,000 bushels over 1876, 170,000 bushels over 1875, and 125,000 bushels over 1874. Of the crop of 1877 Cape Cod and adjacent islands turnished 126,729, New Jersey 152,100 and Wisconsin and other Western States 79,500

Small farms make near neighbors; they schools and churches; there is more money made in proportion to the labor already made in proportion to the labor ; less labor is wanted; everything is kept neat; less wages have to be paid for help; less time is wasted; more is raised to the acre; besides, it is tilled better; there is no watching of hired help; the mind is not kept in a worry, stew, and fret all the time.

In 1843, the mercury was below zero in Iowa all through the month of March. That year the Mississippi river did not op-en until April, above the rapids. In 1857, in Muscatine, lowa, the mercury was 15 degrees below zero, April 18. There was frost in the ground the middle of May, and everybody expected there would be a famine. Yet the crop of spring wheat that year was the heaviest ever known, either before or since.

> Winter Watering of Stock. From the Western Stock Journal.

We have a poor opinion of a creek run for winter watering of stock: 1. The approaches are deep with mud or covered with ice to the great detriment of the stock. Frequently fear of the one or the other deters an animal from taking water as often as it requires. 2. The water is too warm in the summer, and too cold in the winter. 3. Through an alluvial soil, surface water, unless in a rapid stream, retains quite a portion of the polsons resulting from yeg-

A good well and wind pump with automatre reservoir and water tanks are just the thing, and give to the prairie states better water than can be found in mountain Water the stock twice per day with water fresh from the well when the reservoir system is not in use. A stack of good straw in the yard, and on pleasant days a run to the cornfield, fill the measure of fair treatment.

How to Burn a Barn.

It is the easiest thing in the world if a few simple directions are followed. Use an old fashioned tin lantern at night, through whose roughly punched sides only the minimum of light can penetrate, and whose door must necessarily be open to enable you to see anything. Set it down in the bedding while you go up in the hay loft to throw down the feed, and the chances are that your hungry horses or trisky cow will kick it over, Mrs. O'Leary's did the same in the city of Chicago, and set the barn on fire. If you have not a postoffice, Janesville. Practices Dentistry in all its branches. Administers nitrous oxide gas for the cainless extraction of teeth. sep5dawly is windy, feel your way out to the barn the is windy, feel your way out to the barn the best way you can and light your candle inside with matches, and let the match ends take care of themselves-they are small affairs anyhow. On rainy days make the barn your rendezvous for smoking and whittling and talking politics with intelligent neighbors who have leisure hours on their hands as you have. Do not be stingy with your pipes and tobacco, and keep plenty of matches lying around loose, so they will be handy to fire up with. A few social afternoons spent in this way will, not unlikely enable you to get your barn burned.

Paris Green.

A Wisconsin man who claims to have first discovered and published to the world in 1868 the use of Paris green as a destroy. er of the Colorado potato beetle, writes the Mark Lane (London) Express, that it was School Music Books totally unnecessary that the pests ever crossed the boundary of Wisconsin; and, affections of the urinary organs, gravel, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspep even at the late date of his discovery, if the sia, &c. government had appropriated a sum of money, the ravages of the insects would did honest dealing and years of successful prachave been stopped in one season. In conclusion the correspondent says:

At the prices now made by them, it don't pay to have shirts made at home.

-Colley's gang busied themselves, today, cleaning up the filth about the Corn Exchange triangle. Now that the mud is cleared away there will be no need of allowing auctioneers and peddlers to call a crowd together, completely blocking the sidewalks so that ladies cannot pass. Let the crowds stand out in the square, or else move along. On several occasions, lately, passers-by, including ladies, have been obliged to step off the walk, into the mud. public, and keeping the police busy. A and walk around the crowd. Move on.

-At the regular meeting of the Temple of Honor last evening a resolution was pass ed thanking all those who took part in the entertainment given under their auspices, and all those who assisted in selling tickets and other work necessary for the success of the enterprise. The ladies showed great interest in the matter, and it was owing largely to their efforts that the entertainment was so successful. Those who took part in the programme also donated their services, and the Temple wish it understood that they appreciate the kirdness shown by all.

-Janesville audiences are peculiar about one thing. In the applause, everyone seems afraid lest he should be the first to start the clapping, and it consequently takes several minutes for the crowd to break into an enthusiastic expression of approval. A few get their hands down behind some one else, and begin a light patter, others join, they grow bolder, and in a few minutes, they all join in a decent dence, and a little less of the man-fearing youths. THE WEATHER.

The thermometer shows a strong contrast with one year ago to-day. At 7 o'clock this morning it stood at 58 degrees above and at 2 o'clock at 68 degrees above. Clear. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours it stood at 3 degrees and 9 degrees above.

The indications are, in the Tennessee, Ohio valley, and upper lake region, falling barometer, brisk and high southerly to easterly winds, stationary or lower temperature, threatening and rainy weather, with low barometer, heavy rains and gales in morning, Mr. Roberts will preach. Subthe last section.

For the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, falling and lower followed by rising barometer, high winds and gales from east to south, and shifting from west to north, colder threatening and rainy weather, partly turning into snow in the northern portions.

ILLUSTRATION BY PICTURES. One of the great contrasts between the school books used by the fathers and mothers of the land, when young, and those now used by the children, is the use of pictures. As a curious instance of illustrating the meaning of words by pictures, look at the three pictures of a ship on page 1751 of Webster's Unadribged Dictionary,-these alone illustrate the meaning of more than one hundred words and terms far better than they can be defined by any description

ARTFUL STUDENTS.

The art studies of the M. I. C. last even ing were of absorbing interest. Mrs. Baker gave a lively study of the life of the great Dane, Thorwaldsen, the sketch interspersed with art notes of his principle creing to $1,502.03 and 106 paid amounting ations written by Miss Daniels, who was prevented by illness from attending. Dr. Geo. Newman followed with a very satisfactory study of Canova, and Mr. Jones of work already done in the study of sculp-Leonardo da Vinci.

CHURCH SOCIABILITY. There was a very pleasant Methodistic takes ducate to gain a conviction, and ship gathering at the residence of Mr. L. Clarke last evening, the contents of the hat which was passed around for dimes, showing the gathering to be more of a financial success than any given before this scason by the Court Street society. The enjoyability of the evening was increased by the introduction of some literary exercises, though no formal programme was arranged. Mrs. Bliss read selection, which was rendered. A quartet consisting of Messrs. Will Webster, Arthur Conant and the Clark Bros., sang with their usual success. Mr. B. F. Dun widdie read a paper on "Ring out the Old, Ring in the New," which possessed much merit, but was somewhat tedious on account of its length. The rest of the evening was spent in the usual diversions of such occasions. The gathering, like those held before, served fully the purpose for which it was appointed, and strengthened the ties of old friendship, while it increased the acquaintanceship of those before comparatively strangers.

HARD SHELLED LADS.

The lads still coutthue bothering the short time ago there were stolen from a farmer's wagon a pair of rubber boots and some groceries. It has since been learned that some boys did the stealing, and that the chief of the crowd, the son of a respect able father and mother, has skipped out of the city. A few days ago the Central school building was broken into and some mischief done of a trivial nature, such as tearing up a teacher's class book, and marking up the blackboards. It has been found that boys did this also. Lately a lot of eggs were stolen in the Fifth ward. The police traced it up to some boys. Warrants were is ued a short time ago for the arrest of ten youths connected with one of the schools. for general cussedness, including marking up the other boy's backs with obscene characters written in chalk, tion, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and for writing on the walls literature of and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giva similar nature. Beyond the Reach of Human Skill Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons ecoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balsam is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes Dandruff, and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use fallng of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair innuced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it s not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the tailet table everywhere. The grain and provision markets were active during the afternoon at a lower range of prices Wheat-The market on spring wheat-This market was somewhat unsettled to-day. Prices on 'Change averaged higher than on the last board on yesterday, yet the improvement realized failed to command any confidence, and was due entirely to a local demand occasioned by a desire among certain parties to cover speculative contracts affording a profit. The deal was unhealthy, and toward the adjourment, when it became known that all rail freights to the seaboard would be advanced materially on next Monday, a strong bear ish feeling was manifested. Judicial Election Notice.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, SECRETARY'S OFFICE (SS.

OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an election will be held on the first Tuesday in April, A. D. 1878, in the several towns, wards, and election precincts in Rock county, State of Wisconsin, for the election of two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, to hold their offices respectively for terms ending two and four years respectively, after the first Monday of January, A. D. 1884, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter Nineteen of the Laws of 1878 Given under my hand at the Sheriff's office, Janesvilles, Wisconsin, this 7th day of

S. G. COLLEY, Sheriff, Rock Co., Wis,

AN ACT to provide for the election of two associate justices of the supreme court of the State WHEREAS The legislature of this State, at the annual session for the year 1876, proposed and adopted, by a vote of a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, an amendment to the constitution of this State, in the fellowing language:

"Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring: That section 4 of article VII of the constitution be amended so as to read: Section 4. The supreme court shall consist of one chief justice and four associate justices, to be elected by the qualified electors of the state. The legislature shall, at its first session after the doption of this amendment, provide by law for the election of two associate justices of said court, to hold their offices respectively for terms ending two and four years respectively, after the end of the term of the justices of the said court then last to expire. And thereafter the chief justices and the associate justices of said court shall be elected and hold their offices respectively for the term of ten years;" and WHEREAS, The foregoing propose amendment to the constitution of the State was duly ratified and agreed to by the legislate of 1877, and duly submitted to the people of the State of Wisconsin for approval and ratification, at the general election held in said State, November, 1877, and was by a majority of the electors of said State potting the report of the said election property and said election and state and state protection thereon at said election property and and state and state are said election at said election and state and state are said election at said election are said election. voting thereon at said election, approved and ratified: and Weereas, Said amendment has now become part of the constitution of the State of Wiscon sin: therefore The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows: Section 1. There shall be chosen by the qualiled electors of this State at an election to be held in the several cities, villages, town and election precincts of the State of Wisconsin, on the first Tuesday of April, 1878, two associate justices of the supreme court of the State of Wisconsin, to old their offices respectively for the terms end. ing two and four years, on and after the first Mon-day of January, 1884; and thereafter the chief justice and associate justices of said court shall be elected to hold their offices respectively for the term of ten years.

Section 2. The ballot to be used or cast at such election for associate justices may be written or printed, and shall contain the names of two persons legally qualified to hold judicia office in this State. Over the name of the first person on such ballot shall be written or printed the words: "For associate justice of the supreme court for the term ending on the first Monday of January, 1888." Over the name of the second person on said ballot the words, written or printed: "For associate justice of the supreme court for the term ending on the first Monday of January, Said ballots for associate justices shall be cast in a separate box, to be provided at each

Section 3. The persons duly elected at such election may qualify as soon as the result of such election is officially declared, and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices upon their election and qualification, pur-suant to law. The secretary of state shall give the substance of the preamble of this act, together with the act itself, in the notice of said judicial election, such notice to be given in the same way and manner as now provided by law for notice of election of judges of the supreme court. Section 4. The votes cast for said justices shall be counted and returned by the impectors of the election in all respects as votes for State officers are counted and returned, and the officers in counties now designated by law to canvass the returns of votes for State officers shall canvass the returns in their respective counties on said election, and certify and return the result to the State canyassers, at the same time and places. and under the same regulations and restrictions now provided by law, for canvassing and declaring the returns for elections of State officers, and the State canvassers shall canvass said returns certified to them as provided by law in case of elections for State judicial officers. The provisions of any election registry act his State shall not apply to said judicial elec-
